Judge's Comments:

This magazine has all the elements of a stand-out; outstanding, creative design, beautiful imagery, intuitive navigation, engaging front- and back-of-the-book content and well written, insightful features. It also has a clear voice and recognizable look and feel. Great job to the entire team!

Flamingo offers a nice mixture of rich design features coupled with hearty content on a wide variety of topics. The writing, starting with the editorial, is solid and heartfelt, leaving the reader with a pure look into the many things Floridians love about their state.

Florida has found its "Garden & Gun." "Flamingo" is everything a magazine should be: a collection of stories you won't want to stop reading. There's not a single page that seems like filler. The magazine's voice and mantra are clear from cover to cover: This is a portrait of life in Florida, authentically told by natives and expressed with aching nostalgia by former residents. Even the Q&As feel like real conversations. Whether you currently live in Florida or have since moved away, this magazine will make you miss the Sunshine State—Publix subs, seaside thunderstorms, pink flamingoes and all.
